Dear Parents

I am writing to inform you that I have decided to stand down as Headmaster of the College at the end of this academic year. By next summer I shall have completed ten years as Headmaster and it seems a sensible time to hand over the reins and for myself to seek a new challenge. Suffice it to say at this stage that it has been an immense privilege to serve as Headmaster of this wonderful school and community of parents, pupils and staff. I am sure there will be a suitable occasion for me to express my thanks to you all.

I assure you, of course, of my continuing best efforts.

Yours sincerely

Dear Parents

Adrian Aylward has told the Governors that he has decided to step down as Headmaster at the end of this academic year, when he will have completed ten years in the post. I enclose a letter to you from him.

He will go with the Governors' heartfelt thanks for the significant contribution, which he has made to the life of the College and with our best wishes for every success in whatever new role he now decides to take on. I am sure that as parents you, too, will want to thank him for all that he has done for your children over the last ten years.

The Governors are now actively taking steps to appoint a successor, to carry on and develop all that Adrian has achieved during his time as Headmaster. I shall, of course, keep you updated as appropriate over the next few months.

Yours sincerely

Kevin Ryan
